My 5 & 6 year olds love this book! My son loved it so much he requested he take this book to his Kindergarten class to have his teacher read it to the class! She also loved the book and the class had great things to say about it! We love the message in th book and how our kids are eager to help clean up around the beach and also other local community spots we go to (like the park). I love books for my kids with positive messages and the impact this one has had our our kids is so positive! I highly recommend this book! Great for Teachers to read during Earth day/week at the schools. This book is one of my children's favorite and often requested to be read at bedtime!

A positive and intelligent way of explaining to kids the importance of caring for our environment.

Excellent book. Bought two as gifts. Important message said beautifully.

This book was the perfect lead-in to a lesson I designed on biological engineering and recycling for elementary kids! So relatable!

Artwork by Marq Spusta is pretty sweet.... cool to see his earlier kid friendly work... the book itself is cool and I'm sure kids love it.

This book is colorful and has very cute characters that deliver an important message: All water drains to the Bay/Ocean...don't pollute because everything drains to where we swim and enjoy the ocean. Most storm drains in local communities are labeled and this is a nice way to educate K-3 students about the watershed.

Great great book!!! Such an important message! Arrived on time~!

This book is a great resource for teaching kids the importance of recycling and being careful about how we treat our environment. I love that it is printed on recycled paper with soy ink! This is an excellent read!
