Synopsis

The megahit series returns to charm and inspire a new generation of baby-sitters! When Claudia's beloved grandmother, Mimi, has a stroke, it changes everything. When I was in elementary school I loved reading this series. Recently, for something different I have been reading some of the series again. These books are great light reading for adults who love the series. I had forgotten this particular one and really enjoyed reading it again. I love all the happy endings in these sweet books, especially this one.

I chose the five star rating because the babysitters club books are the best books I have ever ever read. This is one that I really like because Mimi reminds me of the despicable me minions where the guys and girls are having tea.

love it! what's next? what do they do? I five because it's so good. except for poor Mimi, that's sad. I hope she can use her fight again.

My 11 year old daughter loves this series, She can read this in a couple of day and its better than playing video games (to my judgement). They were delivered super fast and they are way cheaper via than the local book store.

Great book, granddaughter loved it. Came as promised. Would recommend book to friends.

The two girls in this book are sisters and fight when they have to take care of there grandmother after she has a stroke. It is a little sad but it brings the girls closer together. They learn to get along.

I recommend young teenage girls for this book my daughter read it and she. liked it a lot she has no dislikes and she would read the book over and over again.
