The New Yorker Book Of All-New Cat Cartoons (New Yorker Series)

Synopsis

Cats again? You can never have too many . . . Drawn from the hundreds of cartoons published in The New Yorker in the seven years since The New Yorker Book of Cat Cartoons--as well as from fabulous older cats--this new collection is as hilarious and irresistible as the first. The cartoons provide a cat's-eye view of the world and the important things in life: food, sleep, love and affection, adventure, food, good friends and doggy enemies, back rubs, and food. We see the essence of the feline world captured with verve, humor, and warmth by classic New Yorker artists such as Ed Koren, George Booth, William Steig, Saul Steinberg, Lee Lorenz, Robert Mankoff, Mick Stevens, Danny Shanahan, and Bruce Eric Kaplan. Purrfectly divine!

Customer Reviews

One can never have too many cats--or cat cartoons for that matter--as expertly demonstrated in The New Yorker Book of All-New Cat Cartoons. A follow-up to the magazine's first collection of feline funnies published some seven years ago, this delightful collection captures "a cat's-eye view of the world and the important things in life: food, sleep, love and affection, adventure, food, good friends and doggy enemies, back rubs, and food." Including the work of such notable New Yorker artists as George Booth, Stephanie Skalisky, Danny Shanahan, Arnie Levin, and Edward Koren, this endearing edition will appeal to those lucky enough to count a feline among their friends.

If you are a big fan of New Yorker cartoon dry wit and of cats, you'll really enjoy it. I bought it for a gift, then kept it for myself as a nice little coffee table book.

Good collection of always good New Yorker cat cartoons.

Perfect gift!

New Yorker cartoons - and cats - better than the cat videos by far.

As someone who is owned by a cat, we both found it quite funny and to the point

I'm used to chuckling, if not outright guffawing, at most New Yorker cartoons. I didn't with these... most aren't nearly up to the NY usual standard.

g o o d f u n n y c a r t o o n s

I expected to laugh myself sick. Did not, as the material was somewhat dated.
