AMY KROUSE ROSENTHAL is the author of lots of books for children (such as That's Me Loving You, On the Spot, and Uni the Unicorn, of course) and even some books for grown-ups (like Textbook Amy Krouse Rosenthal and Encyclopedia of an Ordinary Life). You can find more about Amy online at whoisamy.com. BRIGETTE BARRAGER (Uni the Unicorn) is an artist, designer, and illustrator and writer of children's books. She spent some time at Pixar and Walt Disney Animation Studios before taking the plunge into freelance illustration, where she lived happily ever after. She resides in Los Angeles with her handsome husband, cute doggy, and terrible cat. Visit Brigitte at bridgetteb.com.

I was hesitant to get this one because the first was so good and sometimes sequels just don't measure up. While I still think the first one was better and would have been fine as a stand alone, my daughter was excited to have another Uni book and immediately picked up her Uni plush and started flying through the air and sliding down rainbows with her. So, I guess it's a win with us.

The original is my six year old daughter's favorite book, so when I saw this we had to buy it immediately. We've read it at bedtime every night since it arrived, she will not read anything else right now. The illustrations are still beautiful, though the paper is cheaper/less glossy than the original. The story is still incredibly cute, and sets up the inevitable next book in the series. If you're a fan of the first, you should absolutely pick this one up too.

Grand daughter loves this book

Got ours in the mail today and my Unicorn-Loving 4 year old ooo-ed and awwwww-ed over the beautiful pictures and how well it accompanied the first book. Love them both!
