words and pictures are woven together to tell a beautiful story of a one of a kind love felt between a girl and her special pet duckling (really any one of us and our ducklings). honestly one of the most gorgeous books I have seen in years, and I have worked in the classroom for much of the past 20. frame-worthy illustrations and pretty prose. don't hesitate- you'll want to say you got a copy from the first printing of these - there will be many more to come!

Bought this book as a Valentine's present for my five month old's first Valentine's day. I cried my eyes out! Not only did I raise a pair of ducklings as a teenager and found this book bringing back a wave of memories, but the symbolism of raising and releasing your own children was beautiful, touching, and emotional. I love that is a hardback book with such a gorgeous cover and raised lettering for the title.

I had to have this book for my granddaughter. I love the drawings and it has a really good message about the meaning of loving someone or something.

This is an AMAZING book. Great pictures, great message...I LOVE it and will buy it for my grandchildren...it's AMAZING.

This book tugs at my heartstrings. It's a beautiful story of selfless love and sweet friendship. The illustrations are expressive and lovely and I'm grateful to see an African American girl as the main character. I'm excited to read more from the author and illustrator.

This is a beautiful and heartfelt book - my daughter and I really enjoy reading it together!

Sweet story. The little girl character is so cute! Great for bedtime reading.

Love the illustrations. Cute for kids, but possibly even better for soon to be empty nester parents.
