Frank Nielsen is a self-described "ocean nut" born in Bountiful, Utah. He learned to love watersports while a teenager, when his family was posted to Beirut. Later he earned a Bachelor of Science in Ocean Engineering and worked for the U.S. Navy until 2000, when he became a full-time cartographer and map publisher.

I really like this map. it even has maps of the other islands (states in micronesia). the detail for tumon is good, and some other areas of the island. If you need more exact detail you could buy another map from AAA, but it will not have all the interesting info and all the top spots detailed on the island. I like the author and have read this map before bed for several days and still can read it on and off. I hope to visit, im just waiting for the united miles or some $$ that i can save up. maybe in a year or two, or i can just move there when the subsidized housing comes up on the waitlist. Also the material is waterproof and lightweight and durable. seems better than paper and for the price i think its a good deal. Ive seen similar priced maps in Hawaii with less detail and similar prices.
