Ninja Girl

Synopsis

Seventeen-year-old Snow-Soon Lee kicks ass--literally. She teaches at her family-owned martial arts gym, The Academy, and cares more about training to be the next Bruce Lee than hooking up. In fact, Snow's never even been kissed. But when Girls Night rolls around, Snow decides to prove to her friends (and herself) that she's not just some boring tomboy. Impulsively, she kisses a hot stranger and even manages to escape his two security guards. One stolen kiss—Ash Stryker's senior year sucks. His politician father pulled him out of Chariot High, separating him from his championship-winning soccer team. Now he's stuck at a prissy private school with no friends, no team and no chance of being scouted. On top of that, thanks to the death threats his dad's received, Ash has a security tail aka professional babysitters. When the mystery girl from the movies shows up at his school, rappelling from the rafters, Ash knows one thing: he won't let her get away again. One interesting job proposition—After a seemingly random attack, Ash's mother surprises everyone. She hires Snow to be Ash's personal bodyguard until after the election. But can Snow's kick-ass skills hold up against the rising threats to Ash's family? More importantly, can Ash convince his ninja girl to screw ethics and kiss him again? Opposites attract in this YA romance where a smooth talker meets his match in the tough girl who (literally) sweeps him off his feet. Moral of the story: Sometimes even bad boys need a bodyguard.

Customer Reviews

From the first kiss I was hooked! Snow was one bad chick! No matter what others thought she wasn't afraid to be herself. I loved the connection between her and Ash. This book has love, laughter, and intrigue. Really great read.

Before I go fangirl on this book, I will say that i feel like this could be a standalone but to anyone contemplating whether to read this one I'd say read "Adorkable" first. It might help with some of the characters shown in this book.Ok fangirl time:Where to start...oh yeah, gaaaaahhhh naneun jeongmal joh-a.I love the Korean culture (im not Korean) and it jst capture all that I love about it in this book. I absolutely love the chemistry the author illustrates between Ash and Snow. It's just guuuuh amazing. If you love cheesy, adorable rom-com, this is it. I read it in a day so I'd say it's a quick read that just awesome.

Yea, Girl power! I hope someday all girls will see themselves like Cookie O'Gorman sees Snow. Snow is who she is and does not compromise! The great thing is Ash is who he is, too. This story is way better than Geek to Chic transformation story. Cookie's characters are strong and uncompromising. Ninja Girl is an empowering story with romance, action, and mystery! I really enjoyed this book. I hope Cookie has more great stories soon!

Made me laugh and cry just like the first book. It was pretty cute, however the language, though not too bad, was more than I really like. Too much cussing, it was not like that in "Adorkable".

Funny, sweet and a few surprises ...read this author's first book "Adorkable" and loved it so much that added her to list of YA novelists to follow...would put her in the same category as Kassie West and Morgan Matson...

Adorkable and Ninja Girl are both engaging and hilarious. Well worth the money. You'll want to reads these books over and over. Teens and up will love this book. Can't wait for more from this fantastic author:):):)

This book is a big bowl of fluff. Probably marshmallow fluff. It's just a feel good fun book. I will probably buy this for my niece when she's older. She's in 3rd grade and already struggles with her self-esteem.

Cookie strikes again in this cute romance with a side of karate! The characters are unique, but the plot is pretty predictable...and I loved connecting characters from her other book! I think this writer is well on her way to writing YA romance classics!
