The Winning Edge Series: Dreams Of Gold

Synopsis

Jamie Summers is a talented young African-American skater who dreams of winning national and world championships. Her role model is Brianna Hill, an African-American skater who recently won the national title. Jamie is determined to do whatever it takes to be just like Brianna, no matter what the cost. However, when Jamie has the chance to meet the champion in person, she begins to realize that Christ is the only real role model.

Customer Reviews

The first in a series of books that really shares the 'culture' of figure skating as a sport. Fun to read with good character development. Believable situations, real feelings, with girls working out problems in positive (but not goody goody) ways. If you know someone who is interested in ice skating as a sport, these books are a fun primer! I can't wait for Lynn Kirby to write more!
