For quite some time I've been searching for a daily quotation book that ISN'T faith based. Not that I find anything wrong with them, they just aren't my style. Along came this book, suggested by a friend, and I am grateful to have found it. The quotations and 'blurbs' that accompany them fit nicely onto my Android device's screen, allowing me to get a quick read and even share the occasional screen shot when the mood strikes. Go on, give it a try! Gene

This is a book of quotations carefully selected by the author with a positive attitude! You can feel the author's intention to encourage you to joyfully live through her selections and words. I was surprised to see the difference between this book and some other books of quotations, which were just a list of sayings by famous people.

My friend really loves the book and she reads it every day!

very insightful

As the author of More than Quotes, Vol. 1: Success, I really enjoyed this book. I believe it's very important that statements (quotes) have contextual backing otherwise their meaning can be lost. In this book, while the author encourages the reader to interpret the quotes for themselves, she also provides the reader with a sturdy platform to start from for all 365 days of the year.

Everybody should own a copy of The Daily Book of Positive Quotations. Each quote of the day has a way of fitting into one's life.

Very small book so I won't give 5 stars but the quotes are about a paragraph long and very inspiring

I love this book so much that I bought a copy for my daughter-in-law. One day, I went through all the quotes and put post-it notes on the ones I might like to refer to later. I think I flagged over half of the book! When you're having a tough day, reading The Daily Book of Positive Quotations for a few minutes really makes things look brighter.
