The Three Most Wanted (I Am Margaret Book 2)

Synopsis

“Bane? Take Margo and go. You’ve done everything that you can. Just leave me here. I’ll be fine.” “No, you won’t,” Bane said.

“Fine. I won’t. Doesn’t make any difference now. Go.”

2000 KILOMETERS. THREE YOUNG ADULTS. A CONTINENT-WIDE MANHUNT. CHANCE OF SURVIVAL? NO CHANCE. Having outwitted the EuroGov by rescuing an entire facility of teens destined for recycling, Margo is on the run. Together with Jon and Bane, she’s posing as a summer backpacker. Their only hope is to keep ahead of the government trackers and somehow cross the continent to the last free state in Europe: The Vatican. But just how long will that state remain free if the Three Most Wanted Fugitives in Europe find refuge there?

PRAISE FOR BOOK 1: I AM MARGARET

Great style & very good characters and pace. Definitely a book worth reading, like The Hunger Games.

EOIN COLFER, author of ARTEMIS FOWL

An intelligent, well-written and enjoyable debut from a young writer with a bright future.

STEWART ROSS, author of THE SOTERION INCIDENT

This book invaded my dreams.

SR MARY CATHERINE BLOOM

One of the best Christian fiction books I have read.

Print quality was poor. About 1/3 of the book had normal printing on one side of the page and very faint print on the other side. Very distracting to read, as some of the letters and punctuation were actually missing so I had to surmise what I was reading. Unfortunately by the time I got to read this 2nd book, I was outside of the "return window." Bummer. I am enjoying the series and may purchase more (unless I can find it at the library), however I will be sure to check the printing as soon as I receive my copies! $20 is a pricey paperback for such poor quality.

This is another great dystopian series aimed at young readers. I have to say I, not being a YOUNG reader am enjoying this series and will keep reading it, very good.

What wonderful story of faith and standing up to tyranny. I loved the Hunger Games so thought I'd give this series a shot and I am glad I did. Can't wait for book three!

Second book of the series and was really good! Thanks for writing these for the Catholics!

Poor kids had to get their own left overs for dinner because I could not put the book down! Read it!

Absolutely amazing! I bawled and laughed. Was better than the "Hunger Games".

I really enjoyed this series! Very interesting and kept my interest!

This is the first book in the series that I read, even though it's book two, and I loved it! The EuroGov has taken control of everything and implemented unethical programs that all must live by. Margo has become a top rebel, standing up for what is right, good, and true, and many look to her for guidance. But now she, Jon, and Bane are on the run! This is a gritty, action-packed adventure full of twists. Older teens and adults, especially fans of dystopian, will love it! Margo and Jon became my favorite characters right away. I loved that a blind man was a main character and such a strong, selfless, capable character at that. I also liked the character Bane a lot. He struggles with a bit more than the others, in a sense, and he has a bit of growth to come (yes, I read the next two books in this series already). Every character in this series is well-developed and I wanted to keep reading more about them after I finished the book. Highly recommend!
