This is my third coloring book by Stefania Miro and I am enjoying this book as much as I did the first two. In this coloring book, she has drawn beautiful flowers but has simplified the coloring aspect of the designs. The flowers are very pretty but they are flowers rather than “doodled” flowers with small and intricate spaces. This makes it a great book to color when you don't have the time or patience to color in tiny spots. It is also a great coloring book for those who may have some challenges with fine motor skills or whose eyesight may not be up to the tiny parts of other coloring books. All of the designs stop well before the binding. The designs are printed on one side of thin white non-perforated paper that is typical for books published by CreateSpace. The binding is glued but there is plenty of room for you to cut a page out if you choose to do so. All of my markers bleed through and my gel pens either bleed through or leave a distinct shadow on the back of the page. My coloring pencils work well with the paper. I will use a piece of chipboard or heavy paper behind the page I am working on so I don't ruin the following page with leaking ink. While I could wish for thicker, perforated paper, it appears that this is the quality that comes from CreateSpace (which is an company.) What I really like about the CreateSpace is it is a way that independent artists can get their work self-published. That way, I get a huge choice of design styles albeit with not the best paper. These are the coloring medium that I use for testing. If there is something else you feel I should be testing, please let me know and I will see if I can add it to my growing pile: Markers: 1) alcohol-based Sharpies Copic Sketch, Prismacolor double ended markers (brush and fine point), Sharpies (fine and ultra-fine) and 2) water-based Tombows dual end markers (brush and fine point), Stabilo 88, Staedler triplus fineliners, and Pentel markers Gel Pens: Sakura, Fiskars, and Tekwriter Coloring Pencils: Prismacolor Premiere Soft Core, Derwent Colorsoft, Prismacolor Verithins, and Faber-Castel Polychromosil purchased my first copy of this coloring book. The publisher was kind enough to provide me a sample copy at no charge for test and review purposes. This allowed me to give my original, purchased copy to a friend.

I had been searching for a coloring book on par with The Amazing Swirls coloring book. This is it. It's just the way I like it.....not too easy with huge pictures and broad lines, yet not too difficult with small pictures and fine lines. This is just right. Pictures are great for both medium and fine point gel pens.

Bought this as a gift for my mother who is 82...she loves it. I picked out this particular book due to the larger size of the pictures. The first book I purchased I kept for myself after I realized the print would be much too small for her. She colors in it every few days or so...says it really calms & relaxes her. I enjoy coloring in these type of books for the same reason..especially when the weather is too bad for outdoor activities.

This is for when you just don't want to take the effort to do the really detailed stuff. Its more relaxing than the Secret Garden and such.

Great book. Very well priced and nice level of complexity (not too much or too little) for a beginner in adult coloring books. Nice sturdy paper, one sided pages. Colors and pencil impressions do not affect the next page. Attached is the first colored page of this book which my wife did with the "Yosoo 24/36 Color Oil Base Marco Fine Art Professional Drawing Pencils Colored Pencils Painting Set for Artist Sketching Secret Garden Coloring Book (24 colors)" pencils which we also bought on .

My older sister that is in her 70's saw my coloring books and she didn't like them because they were too busy. I don't think she realized adult coloring books were the 'in-thing' now that so many people were doing. For her birthday, I ordered this book and gave her pencils to go with it and now she loves coloring in the evening. She didn't need anything so this was the perfect gift and she seemed well-pleased to have received it.

Nice simple designs. I think this would make a great gift for the elderly or a teen. I love this book, it is one of my favorites. I enjoy adult coloring so much. I will buy more books from this artist. Nice paper on one side. This is a great price for such a good quality book.

I love this adult coloring book. It has simple pages without all the background busyness that so many of the books have.
