Customer Reviews

A solid ending to this short series. Overall I enjoyed the arc. While the flow of action didn't always work, the panel art remains very good and consistent throughout. The narrative of Vader's failure after the battle of Yavin and need to redeem himself in the eyes of emperor proved interesting enough. However, not all of the story elements felt quite like they fit in the SW: Cinematic Universe. Aspects introduced in other series (such as SW: REBELS) do help with a few of these elements (e.g. Cylo's cybernetic space whales). But overall it's a good read for fans who want more material. While it's great to see cameos, the character of Doctor Aphra and her murderous droids quickly became favorites. The parallels to C-3PO and R2-D2 are a bit too close perhaps and I think there was room for a bit more originality, they were still enjoyable to follow

Great story and art. Fantastic pacing , exposition and mood. Flawless and deep. Introduced some interesting and plausible characters at the as the time that it dove into a reasonable Vader psyche. Fantastic!

While the series did not end as strong as it started, it was still highly enjoyable and made Vader the powerful and intimidating character that he should be. The addition of Triple zero and Bee tee was worth it alone.

Excellent end to ana amazing series. All I an say is I have more money so please aake more Vader books!

One of the best series! Loved it! Good ending. Tried everything up. Vader himself was terrifying, of course. I can't wait to read more about Doctor Aphra!

This comic have been outstanding, darth vader as ruthless and powerful, as we remembered from the first movies. Only great things

GREAT TO HEAR ABOUT THE STATUS ON THE BOOK OF THE GALAXY NOTE, THE LAB. UM 2ND. THE CUSTOMER SERVICE, I HAVE TO BE AT LEAST A LITTLE MORE

An amazing conclusion to the Darth Vader Comics. I'm excited for the new series. I am thoroughly impressed with all that has been done for Vader here as a whole.
