Customer Reviews

"Literature Made Easy: Pride and Prejudice" is from a new series that is interesting and innovative. It mainly focuses on a few scenes to analyze, and it does an excellent job at it. But, it's a horrible source for explaining the plot and details. If you plan to skip the book and want a really good guide, don't pick this. But if you do read the book, this book is excellent as an accompaniment for analyzing. It goes into deep depth in analyzing this literature. If you do skip the book, get this guide for analyzing and get Monarch Book Notes for the plot, and you'll get away with maybe an B or C on tests. This guide is excellent for analyzing literature.
