A self-confessed kayak junkie, Timothy Bauer came to paddling only in his early 30s. He resides in Madison, WI, around which he has been paddled several thousand miles on area creeks, lakes, and rivers."

Have long been a follower of Tim's "Miles Paddled" website so when I heard of this book I knew it was worth ordering. Received yesterday, started reading the descriptions of rivers I'm familiar with and found they were spot on and with excellent details for paddlers interested in this area of Wisconsin. I believe this book will become a standard reference for paddlers in the area, much like Svob's Paddling Wisconsin series is, only covering many rivers not in Svob's. Looking forward to researching (then paddling) the many new unfamiliar places described in this book. Nice job, Tim.

This book is awesome! Not only is it wonderfully informative but it is VERY well written. Well worth the purchase if you plan to do some paddling in the covered region. As a resident of Milwaukee this is my new "bible" for kayaking adventures. Since buying a copy in August, I've managed to take three recommended trips and am SO grateful for guidance!!

Mr. Bauer's book is fantastic from cover to cover! This book is so well-researched and is loaded with an inspiring appreciation for the natural beauty of Wisconsin. Everything I need to plan a paddle is right here at my fingertips. I can't wait to get to some of these spots in my own kayak.

Awesome Book! Worth the Price. I found many new places in South Central Wisconsin to Kayak, that I wouldn't have found before.

So many great trips in here! I love all the detailed information, including interesting stops nearby when you get off the water. We've taken a few trips so far and have found all the information accurate. Can't wait to explore more new places close to home.

Great book for locations. Very detailed, has some maps of the rivers/ streams. If you are looking for a place to go, get this book.

I wish the photos were in color - or at least high quality black and white with proper contrast. Also, this covers 98% rivers in the area where I was looking. For more scenic and serene lakes.

This is a fantastic guide to the many (largely unexplored) streams around Madison. It opens up hundreds of miles of new paddling adventures in our back yard. Thank you Mr. Bauer!
