Rugby And Revival: A True Story Of Hope In Wales

"We had a good chat with Jonathan Davies and I told him how much this Welsh cap meant. I could tell that Sam was going to be a leader."

Rhys Stenner's destiny was spoken into him as a young child, when a relative said these four words: "Grandpa played for Wales." Ever since, Rhys has had a passion for Wales, rugby and following God's purpose for one's life.

"Rhys Stenner's passion for Christ and Wales is infectious"
- Glyn Jenkins, BBC commentator, former international rugby union player

"I have great encouragement and have enjoyed much prayer time with Rhys" - Byron Hayward, former international rugby union player

"Since our first meeting Rhys and I have become firm friends and friends who continue to encourage one another in the Gospel"
- Emry Lewis, BBC commentator, former international rugby union player

Rhys Stenner is the grandson of Welsh international rugby player Ronnie Rhys Morris (1933-1937). Rhys pastored New Hope Baptist Church in Fayetteville, Georgia USA, while leading groups serving in Wales every summer alongside his family. Rhys is also the author of "If In Doubt" published by Worthy Publishing.

Synopsis

Rugby and Revival: A true story of hope in Wales. Rhys Stenner discovers in this true story that his grandfather has been a well known rugby player playing fly half for Wales. A new found faith leads to remarkable friendships within the valleys of Wales, with a sense of revival and plenty of rugby. This story journeys from 1905 to present day. It takes us from Wales, to England, to the USA and back to Wales bringing encouragement and hope.

Customer Reviews

Great story of how God weaved early passions and influences in the author's life to make a real gospel difference across the world. It is a quick and enjoyable read.

As someone who personally knows Pastor Rhys and his story, I found it extremely refreshing and eye opening to read about the big picture of his family's life and to witness part of his story as well. We are so thankful for him!
