The Ultimate Treasure Hunt: A Guide To Supernatural Evangelism Through Supernatural Encounters

Synopsis

The Supernatural Treasure Hunt The Ultimate Treasure Hunt leads believers into a supernatural lifestyle of Kingdom building. Author Kevin Dedmon captures the heart of witnessing and personal evangelism through his ministry where healing, miracles, and deliverance are regular occurrences. Based on biblical principles and personal testimonies, you will learn how the simplicity of hearing a word of knowledge from God leads you to clues for the treasure hunt. "...Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). Witnessing the love and saving grace of Jesus does not need to be invasive or argumentative; rather, it is a supernatural encounter when God reveals Himself in a specific way. The fun begins when you read the step-by-step guidelines for embarking on a successful, fulfilling "treasure hunt."

God is raising up a new generation of revivalist for Kingdom expansion in these exciting days. Kevin Dedmon is one of the remarkable leaders of this revival and his book, The Ultimate Treasure Hunt, I believe will be a key catalyst to take this global revival to another level. I highly recommend it!

Kevin Dedmon has a traveling ministry focused on equipping, empowering, and activating the Church for supernatural evangelism through signs and wonders, healing, and the prophetic. He earned a Master's degree in church leadership from Vanguard University, and has been in full-time ministry for more than 25 years. He and his wife are part of Bethel Church staff in Redding, California.

I understand the idea behind the treasure hunt. I think the book is well written. I don't agree with using this formula or any formula. I think the testimonies in the book are wonderfully encouraging and the basic premise that we need to be bold, manifest the kingdom of God and show love to people are all wonderful. I do take issue with "make up a word of knowledge" They explained why they thought it was okay but that isn't what Jesus did or what we were instructed to do in the word. If you want to understand how to move in any gift I recommend reading The Gifts and Ministries of the Holy Spirit by Lester Sumrall. He was an evangelist who has since moved to heaven and that book is wonderful. It lays out how to believe God for the greater gifts, gives testimonies of them in current operation and gives examples from scripture through the whole bible for each gift. It will leave you with a thorough understanding of what God has been working in you already and a hunger for more of Him. It will also help you keep wrong ideas out like making up a word of knowledge...that seems like an invitation to be deceived by clairvoyant spirits. I think the best part about this book is the simple advice of encouraging us to step out. We shouldn't be spectators in the body asking Pastors to do all the work. There are lots of good things in the book...but be mindful that you are an individual and God may have you minister to people in a different way than this treasure hunt. I hope no one gets hung up on getting words of knowledge flowing or trying to be like someone else. God made you to be an amazing and unique part of the body of Christ and he has a way for you to minister to people that will be full of his peace. When you find it; the Grace of God will open doors and his favor will make your ministry path very clear. You may be used primarily in discerning of spirits or encouragement. Remember that "One plants and One waters" BUT Only God brings the increase...so don't let anyone make you feel less than if you are a seed planter. Without people planting seeds of love, encouragement and comfort the hearts of people wouldn't be prepared to even be touched in the way described in this book.

This book will get you excited about doing something that has never been appealing before (if you are like me). Witnessing to a complete stranger has always been something I shied away from. But, be advised, reading this book will get you wanting to jump in with both feet. Great testimonies of God's love in action!

I have daughters who have practiced this method of finding people who were desperate for God's encouragement, and wanted to know more about it. This book does a good job of explaining what exactly "Treasure Hunters" are (people who are seeking the people God wants to encourage/heal/bring into His Kingdom), what the "Treasure" is (the people God is seeking), and how the two get together. I recently went to a conference where this method was practiced, and it was a positive way to let people know just how much God loved them and was seeking them for their good. This book filled in many gaps where I just didn't "get it" in the short conference. I would recommend that others read this, contemplate what Dedmon is really saying about how to bring the grace of God to those Jesus misses most, and consider putting this into action. I now cannot go out without asking God what He wants to say to the people around me, and God often answers!

The anecdotal format makes for an easy read, but I also appreciated the teaching perspective the author incorporated into his book. Regardless if each reader finds this style of evangelism something they feel compelled to try, it will most certainly give each reader a heightened awareness of God's deep love for the lost. I have been challenged by this author to evaluate my own sense of urgency and compassion for the lost. Strongly recommend to all Christians who desire to have a mind and heart after God's.

This is a life-changing book. Kevin shows how the Holy Spirit will highlight people for you to impact with the Kingdom of God.

Fun time to be had as Holy Spirit guides you to people to love on. Good book to help you to "get out of the boat" and step out in faith.

A friend recommend this but I was very leery of it. I have never been comfortable with "street evangelism" and the idea of a treasure hunt just seemed silly. When I started reading it I could not put it down. Through testimonies, scriptures, Godly wisdom and instruction it has opened up a new world to me. I ordered one for my Mom when I finished it.

It's about time the body of Christ started to think and live outside the box that religious tradition has tried to put God in. When we start functioning in the body of Christ by depending on the Holy Spirit and the life of Christ in us, then will again have something to offer a lost, hurting and dying world, that the world actually wants and can relate to. Too bad it makes some Christians uncomfortable...they need a bigger view of God. Kudos to author Kevin Dedmon. His book is an easy-to-read challenge to the rest of us to believe God on the level of action which involves stepping out of our comfort zones. I recommend this book and plan to incorporate its hands-on practicality into our bible college curriculum.
