Customer Reviews

In this first all Ohio hiking guide, naturalist and veteran hiker, Ralph Ramey, shows the delights of hiking in the Buckeye state's incomparable system of state parks, forests, wildlife areas, nature preserves and historic sites.

This a great book for hikers in Ohio. It describes in detail many hikes of varying length all over the state. However, sometimes the descriptions in the book don't seem to match the actual trail. A more detailed map and a compass are often helpful. All this is not to say that this is not a great guidebook. The hikes described are beautiful and exciting. I especially recommend Shawnee State Forest.
