Customer Reviews

This study guide was well organized, easy to use and covered the content thoroughly. The comprehensive review of each subject was organized in a logical and easy to follow format that mirrors the subtests in Reading, Language and Literature; History and Social Studies; Science and Mathematics; and Physical Education, Human Development and Visual and Performing Arts. The test taking strategies and practice test questions build confidence, and the detailed answer explanations help to review concepts that were missed on the practice test. Taking the practice test multiple times and reviewing missed answers really helps assure success. Use this study guide to greatly increase your performance on the CSET and improve your chance to pass the exam. (Hint: ask about the DVD of test taking tips)

I like the layout of this test prep book, it looks well organized, clear, concise and straight to the point. The bullet points, bold definitions, charts and illustrations really help to conceptualize the material.

Book is written very clearly and point to the point. Its section is also well divided which is very helpful. Definitely recommend to every one.

Great book, written very well. Very easy to study with and is worth the read. I highly recommend this product if you need to pass the CSET or not. Great reference as well.

I like the way the book is divided into the sections that are on each sub test. It helps keep things I learned in order and helps me not to stress too much about remembering items that may be on the test.

I will be buying the entire book for my Kindle. It's very concisely written, simple and to the point. I really enjoyed reading the sample material, and have decided to purchase the entire book.

This book is a great help. Highly recommend this book for study. You can boost up your score very well with the help of this book. Go for it!!!

The best book , lots of detailed notes.Excellent strategies for passing out the test.
