Formac Pocketguide To Whale Watching On Canada's East Coast

Synopsis

Jeffrey Domm, illustrator and author of many wildlife books, has compiled a whale watching guide with more than 50 species of whales, dolphins, porpoises and sharks. Features presented include the geographical range of species, the best months for sighting, and size and distinctive marks visible at the waterline. A full colour illustration of each creature is accompanied by informative text and graphics. Visitors and residents alike will find this guide informative and entertaining. For anyone whale watching on Canada's east coast, the Formac Pocketguide to Whale Watching on Canada's East Coast provides essential information for quick identification of these majestic sea mammals.
