Zion National Park Adventure Set: Map & Naturalist Guide

Synopsis

The Zion National Park Adventure Set consists of a Pocket Naturalist Guide and National Geographic map, ideal, lightweight references to take hiking or driving while exploring this spectacular region. Waterford's folding pocket-sized Southwestern Desert Life guide is a beautifully illustrated reference to over 140 familiar and unique species of animals and plants includes a map featuring prominent wildlife-viewing areas. National Geographic's Zion National Park Trails Illustrated Map is a waterproof, tear-resistant map that features detailed topographic information of the region, useful traveling tips, plus up-to-date information on trails, roads, and points of interest.

The National Geographic Maps/Waterford Press collaboration on the creation of this Adventure Set series marries the best in map publications with the best in regional nature reference guides.

The map was fantastic, but the wildlife guide wasn't helpful. It's clear from the guide itself that it's not intended for use in a place that has the type of climate that is prevalent in Zion. I'm not sure why they paired these together. I would recommend buying only the map if you are headed to Zion and not to any points farther south.

I'm running across the park in April and wanted to have not only the topography map, so to add on the Flora and Fauna Guide was an easy call. Although I may not use it myself while running, my kids can use to explore while I'm out on the trail.

This is a bargain. It is a great gift to prepare someone that loves flora and fauna for a visit to Southern Utah's canyon country and the map of Zion is invaluable..

The map in this package very good. The folding pocketed guide is a waste of money. I've been all over southern Utah, west to east, and one of the most common trees is not even listed in the guide, the Juniper. The legend on the back page doesn't even list anything in Utah, even though this is called a Zion adventure set???
