I'm a true beginner, like no art classes even in high school. I'm not even sure I got to paint in grammar school. Getting instruction like "block in clouds" doesn't really help, I needed a bit more. I'm glad it worked for some people but if you really are a beginner you may want to select something else.

This contains all the materials and instruction book for not only beginners, but also for those who need more confidence to forge ahead.

I am trying to obtain the complete books of walter foster, because they are very good for me because I am learning to paint in oil, and these books teach me so much.
