Customer Reviews

Borch maps use a patented lamination process across the folds of the map, making it easier to read and even easier to refold. The tough but non-toxic lamination material decomposes to oxygen and water in a landfill environment. Until then, the map is practically indestructible in your backpack or suit coat pocket and can even be written on temporarily with dry-erase markers!

This map is great!! Not only does it show the main roads and smaller ones, there are several close up maps of major cities and sites included. And the fact that its laminated allowed me to use permanent marker on it with the option of wiping the market off with alcohol in case of a mistake. Also marked are a lot of lesser visited ancient sites which is exactly what I need. This will be perfect for my upcoming adventure to Crete!

I love this map. Great map with durable laminate. Helpful and useful. Map is not water proof at edges. Keep liquids away from the edges of map.
