Customer Reviews

Rand McNally makes a map called "Boulder & Longmont" and another map called "Boulder." They're the same map, same scale, except that the Boulder map is cut smaller and just has Boulder and is laminated onto plastic. I guess this might be better if you never leave Boulder and are incapable of folding a map, but for the same price you might as well get "Boulder & Longmont" map. It's not a bad map but I was hoping to find a large-scale map showing more detail (and easier to read). The scale is one inch = 0.50 miles. It's frustrating that doesn't require that maps specify their scale before you buy them.

Rand McNally doesn't promise too much. For the Easyfinder is easy to read, easy to fold(!!!) and easy to protect, if you don't want to write on. A superb map in every way. Volker Doege
